Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

ENHANCEMENTS TO OUR PROCESSES

As part of our efforts to place WSP | Parsons Brinckerhoff at the leading edge of compliance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015:

1. We have conducted a human trafficking and modern slavery risk assessment to inform our proportionate response to the new legislation
2. We have prepared a specific policy relating to the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and published this on our website <http://www.wsp-pb.com/en/WSP-UK/Who-we-are/About-us/Corporate-Policies-/>
3. We are reviewing and updating our internal training programme on the subject of ethical business practices at a Global business level
4. We are enhancing our procedures for on-boarding new suppliers to obtain confirmation of a supplier's awareness of and compliance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015
5. We are reviewing our existing supply chain applying a proportionate and risk based approach to contact relevant existing suppliers to obtain confirmation of their awareness of and compliance with the requirements of the Modern Slavery Act 2015, with an escalated procedure for medium and high risk suppliers on the basis of sector or geographical location of their operations
6. We are enhancing our procedures for assessing suppliers for one-off payments
7. We are reviewing our suite of contractual documents with suppliers and, where relevant and appropriate, we are introducing contractual provisions to ensure compliance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015
8. We are working with recently acquired businesses to ensure that our policies and procedures are adopted and integrated into acquired businesses as soon as possible.

CONTINUING TO IMPROVE

As our approach to combatting modern slavery and human trafficking continues to develop, we will be looking for key performance indicators to allow us to monitor and measure our performance in this area.

Compliance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015 is monitored by a combination of Norrie Sinclair (Head of Risk and Ethics - EMEIA), Charlotte Woodworth (Head of Supply Chain) and Karen Sewell (EMEIA General Counsel and Head of UK Legal).
